Offender Escapes from Plummer Community Corrections Center

An offender serving part of her sentence at the Plummer Community Corrections Center in Wilmington left the facility grounds without authorization Monday afternoon.

Alicia Moore, a 23-year-old black female who is 5'3" and weighs 170 pounds, was discovered missing during a formal head count at 3 p.m. It has been determined that she left the facility between 2:15 p.m. and the time of the head count. Department of Correction officers continue to work on locating and apprehending Moore.

Moore, serving a six-month sentence for Violation of Probation on an original charge of Robbery 2nd, arrived at Plummer Center on November 5.
